I found this site to be very simple, not as elegant as others I have visited, but nevertheless easy on the eye and simple to play on. I made a slight goof of the entrance page but the help staff were both polite and helpful, and I was soon playing with the best of em.

I found the cherryred casino to be rigged... at certain times of the day or night it is impossible to win...other times its easy to win.

I have played at this casino for about a year. I would recommend this casino. There payouts are timely (usually within 1.5 weeks), I have had some pretty good payouts and support is good.

I played $200 with a 400% bonus and miraculously played through the 20x playthrough and won $4000. They took the $799 bonus out of my payout, as per the fine print, and I withdrew $3200. It took about two weeks to get my money, but I got it. This is the real deal. I highly recommend it.

I am a VIP at Cherry Red Casino and for the 1st time in 3 years I have played and tried to withdraw my winnings. I have been told since the approval date of May 14, 2011 that my money will be there for sure soon. They said it was a backup on a third party server that they use to send the money...come on now...enough is enough!!!! Supposedly, it will be here in 7-10 days as of last Wednesday...But I was told that several times already...Can somebody PLEASE give me some advice I am so frustrated!!!!
