This casino is notorious for slow paying any winnings, they always say is due to "technical issues", well it has happened to me twice in 2 months now, first was July 09, and now August 09, it takes them weeks or now over a month to payout. This casino is highly ranked but do not get a false sense of security they WILL NOT pay you very fast. And when they do, the fees are enormous. I cashed out 1k and got $830 nearly 4 weeks later, still waiting for this check, today makes 12 biz days and they say it can take 2-3 more weeks! BEWARE.

Hi my name is Louise and I am the rep for Rushmore Casino. We have unfortunately had some processor issues over the last 2 months which has affected payouts - Much to everyones disappointment. We have been working very hard to rectify this and are our company are now re- processing these delayed check withdrawals in batches. Sincere apologies for the delays - We normally work within a 7-10 business day time frame and meet these time frames.

Concerning fees, we do not charge fees for sending withdrawals (only if a wire is requested for less than $250, there would be a $25 processing fee) - The only deductions taken from withdrawals are if a bonus was taken on the deposit on which you had cashed out from, as our bonuses are play bonuses only.

Please feel free to contact customer support should anyone have questions, and Mark, please contact support in 24 hours time where we will be able to give you a timeframe as to when your check will arrive.

Regards, Louise.

I have to agree with Mark- the payout is VERY slow. I have only made two withdrawals and neither one has been received timely. I really do like the casino and I used to play regularly but I think I will have to play somewhere else due to this issue.

This is one of the casinos that would definately recommend. One thing for sure they do pay. It is one of the more reputable online sites. I have played at another site that takes months to pay or not at all...I have had decent wins with approvals and payouts usually within 2 weeks at Rushmore. I have played at this casino for over a year and continue to do so. It is one of my 2 favorites.
