Titan Poker is one of the biggest poker sites online today. They offer some really great games, tournaments and satellites to live poker events. TitanPoker graphics are incredible, and realistic. It gives you the feeling that you are actually sitting at the table. The set up is incredible, and very easy to navigate. Titan is part of Playtech iPoker network.

TitanPoker.com doesn't accept USA Players.

Titan Poker 08 Tournaments

Titan offers some of the best poker tournaments online. For new players who download and register with Titan will be eligible to play in one of their $50 Beginners Freerolls. They offer Multi- table tournaments. Single player tournaments, also called Sit- N- Go's, which is a tournament played on one table with up to ten players. These are run on a fill and go basis. As players register the seats fill up and as soon as a table is full the tournament starts. There are no break periods. They also offer Satellite tournaments, Both Single Table Tournaments and Multi Table Tournaments can serve as qualifiers for special tournaments - the qualifiers are called "Satellite Tournaments" and the winner/ s wins a seat in the main event.

Titan Poker provides great online poker action. I've made some bucks here :-)

This is great - but take care youâ€™ll find many, many great players, think careful before playing.

See you there - Vektor

I wonder what's so Titan about this site? They have normal bonuses and promotions,they have an average number of players,they have average graphics that you can encounter at almost every reasonable poker site.So the question is what's so Titan? Maybe the fact that they have good banners and commercials? Neah, I don't think so.
